Calcutta-1, the 12th September 1967

PUBLIC NOTICE

SUB: Import licensing policy for Iron & Steel items for April, 1967/March, 1968 period.

No. 34/IP(PN)/67.—A reference is invited to items (15) and (16) of Public Notice No. 22/IP(PN)/67 dated 16-5-1967 which inter alia provides for import of stainless steel sheets, plates, strips and circles. It has since been decided that the importers who are entitled to import these items in accordance with the said provisions, may, at their discretion import these items in secondary quality or in cut lengths provided these are in original mill packing. The importer will have to ensure that shipping documents are accompanied by the mills certificate to the effect that the materials have been shipped in original mill packing and the packing should be properly marked for the clearance by customs on the basis of the certificate.

The relaxation above is intended for the import of secondary quality or cut length materials which can be utilised economically in industrial uses including manufacture of utensils and other domestic ware.
